

Let the Coal Fire Go Out

At the first suggestion of summer weather let the range fire die out, set a New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove in a corner of the kitchen, and at once the family boiling, frying and baking may be done with comfort, because the "New Perfection" delivers the heat under the kettle and not about the room. Another convenience of the

NEW PERFECTION

is its CABINET TOP—a feature found in no other oil stove. Presents the appearance of a steel range. Fine for holding dishes—for keeping meals hot after they are cooked—for warming plates and for keeping towels handy. Made in three sizes—with or without Cabinet Top as desired. At your dealer's or write our nearest agency.

(The Rayo Lamp gives a most agreeable light for reading, sewing or study—mellow, strong, continuous. No better lamp is made for every household use. If not at your dealer's, write our nearest agency.

DEATH OF GOV. LILLEY.

Gov. George Leavens Lilley died at the executive mansion in Hartford, Conn., at 7:26 o'clock yesterday evening after battling with disease for four weeks. Death was due to acute nephritis and its attendant complications.

Gov. Lilley would have been 50 years old August 3. He was born in Oxford, Mass., and as a boy worked on the farm, struggling to get an ordinary education. He was reputed to be wealthy.

Gov. Lilley entered politics after a long period of driving business life, to the wholesale beef trade as the Waterbury partner of the Swift Company, the Chicago packers. His first political battles were on the local field, and he was subsequently elected a member of the Connecticut legislature. Later he was chosen a congressman. He soon attracted attention in Congress by his attack upon a number of bills. Recently he attacked the submarine boat contracts. A little more than a year ago Congressman Lilley brought about an inquiry into the submarine boat situation, during which he bore the brunt of a fierce attack. This undermined his health, and he went home last May.

The committee of inquiry found against him. Mr. Lilley did not return again to Washington. He had long desired to be governor of Connecticut, and the situation had shaped itself so that his friends had control in the state. After a vigorous campaign in the primaries, in which he won overwhelmingly, he was nominated in the September convention. The profection canvass was the most bitter in the State's history. Mr. Lilley went through it unflinchingly and was elected by a majority less than half that given to Mr. Taft.

CARNegie PREDICTS WAR.

That a great world conflict is threatened between Great Britain and Germany over their naval armaments was the declaration of Andrew Carnegie yesterday in New York before the annual business meeting of the Peace Society, of which he is president. The time has come, he said, for the other nations of the world to intervene between the "two disturbing powers."

Among other things Mr. Carnegie said: "Never in our day has the world's peace been so seriously threatened. Britain has discovered in Germany a menace to her existence. Germany, having equal rights upon the sea, fails to recognize the right of Britain to continue forever as mistress of the seas. France, Japan and Russia are all building Dreadnoughts which have returned to plague the inventor. Last of all, Austria announces that she has resolved to build three Dreadnoughts. An ominous decision, indeed, and suggestive of a German alliance. All Europe is awake to the presence of a great impending danger. Within a small radius the two gigantic fleets of Germany and Britain will operate, often in sight of each other. The topic of constant decision on every ship will be their relative power and the probable consequences of battle. The rival crews will regard each other with suspicion, jealousy and hatred—in this only too truly representing the feelings of their countrymen. Under such strain a mere spark will suffice to precipitate the conflict."

LEAPED FROM BUILDING.

Rebecca Mathewson and her daughter Rose leaped from the window of their flat on the fourth floor of a tenement on Grand street, New York, yesterday afternoon, to escape from a fire which had driven them away from the stairway of the house to the window sill. Mrs. Mathewson was hurt so that she would probably die. The girl had her skull crushed and may not recover.

When the fire was discovered the mother leaped out of the window and screamed for help. The first fireman who came sent out an extra call for a hook and ladder truck. Before the ladders could be raised the little girl became so terrified that she crawled completely out of the window and hung over the street, with her arms around her mother's neck. The strain on the woman was too much for her endurance, and just as the head of the ladder was swinging toward her she slipped out of the window, and mother and daughter together pitched headlong to the street. The mother's fall was broken by a street lamp, and the girl still clinging to her, was saved by striking her mother's body instead of the pavement.

ROYAL ARCADE.

The State Council of the Royal Arcanum, which convened in Lynchburg Tuesday, adjourned yesterday afternoon after selecting Richmond as the place of meeting next April. The officers elected Tuesday night were installed yesterday by Frank B. Wickham, of Pennsylvania, supreme deputy regent for Virginia. Considerable discussion was occasioned by an effort to abolish the office of deputy state regent, which is held by Mr. Harry Kemp, of Richmond. This was finally referred to the executive committee for action and this is said to be a victory for those favoring the retention of the office.

Rexall
"93" HAIR TONIC

Our faith in the superior remedial qualities of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is so strong that we promise to return your money—without question or quibble—if it does not do what we claim it will.

Because it contains Resorcin, Beta Naphthol, Pilocarpin, Borax, Glycerin and Alcohol in perfect combination, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic provides the softening, cleansing, antiseptic, germicidal, stimulating and nourishing properties, so desirable and necessary for the successful treatment of scalp and hair troubles.

If used according to directions for a reasonable length of time, we are absolutely positive that it will thoroughly cleanse the scalp and hair, relieve irritation, eradicate dandruff, stimulate the hair follicles and papilla, revitalize and nourish the hair roots, stop falling hair, prevent baldness, promote hair growth and make the hair naturally soft and silky.

You must realize that we would not dare back up our claims with such a liberal offer unless we were positive that we can substantiate our statements in every particular, and the most skeptical person should at least be willing to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic at our risk.
